

D-Link Cable Tester NTL-CT-001 is small hand-held device, which enables network professionals to quickly and easily authenticate Ethernet twisted pair cables. It is ideal for testing the continuity of a cable with RJ11, RJ45 or BNC connectors prior to installation. It adopts automatic scan mode which can rapidly get test result.

Key Features

- Full LED indication lights on both main and remote unit
- Check RJ11, RJ45 and BNC connectors
- Verify continuity, opens, shorted or cross wire paired
- Move switch to S to slowdown auto test feature
- Small size and lightweight to carry

Specifications

Indicator	LED Lights
Electricity	25mA
Power	9V Alkaline Battery (Excluded)
LxWxH (mm)	104 x 96 x 27

Attention

Do not connect high voltage lines to avoid from damage of the device
Connect the cable to the correct port
Read the user manual before using it

Ordering Information:

NTL-CT-001	Network Cable Tester
------------	----------------------